

Club 50th Anniversary Celebration

1974 - 2024

Champions of all Scotland — the victorious Central Region team after their success in the Royal Bank of Scotland Trophy during the Scottish Young Athletics League at Meadowbank earlier this month. The team includes 18 boys from Clackmannan District and is managed by Mr William Murray of Alva (centre).

15. 9. 78

Central Region's successful young athletes.

They're on the right track

SOME of the region's finest young sportsmen, many of them from Clackmannan District, won the Scottish Young Athletes' league trophy for Central Region Amateur Athletics club last weekend.

The final of the league, sponsored by the Royal Bank of Scotland, was held in atrocious weather at Coatbridge Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The finalists were some of Scotland's youngsters from clubs like Shettleston, Bellahouston, Aberdeen, Edinburgh and Ayrshire, as well as Central Region.

Central Region came first with 78½ points, only 18½ more than runners-up Edinburgh.

Boys from Clackmannan District, proving to be the best Scottish young athletes for the second year running, were: M. Stewart, 400m and 400m Relay; J. Forsyth, 400m and 100m relay; D. McMillan, 800m, 400m relay and triple jump; s. Arnold, 1500m and triple jump; D. Illingworth, 1500m; G. Paterson, 2000m steeplechase and 800m; R. Todd, pole vault, discus and shot; R. Hall, javelin, discus and 100m relay; B. Ross, 80m hurdles and 400m relay; A. Killen, 200m and 100m relay; D. Hamilton, 400m and 400m relay; R. Cameron, 800m and 1500m; M. Walker, 1500m steeplechase, 1500m and triple jump; H. Grant, 1500m steeplechase, discus and long jump; J. Stewart, shot, discus and 400m relay; M. Buck, 400m and 400m relay; and W. Joyce, long jump and 100m relay.

In all more than 1000 young athletes took part.

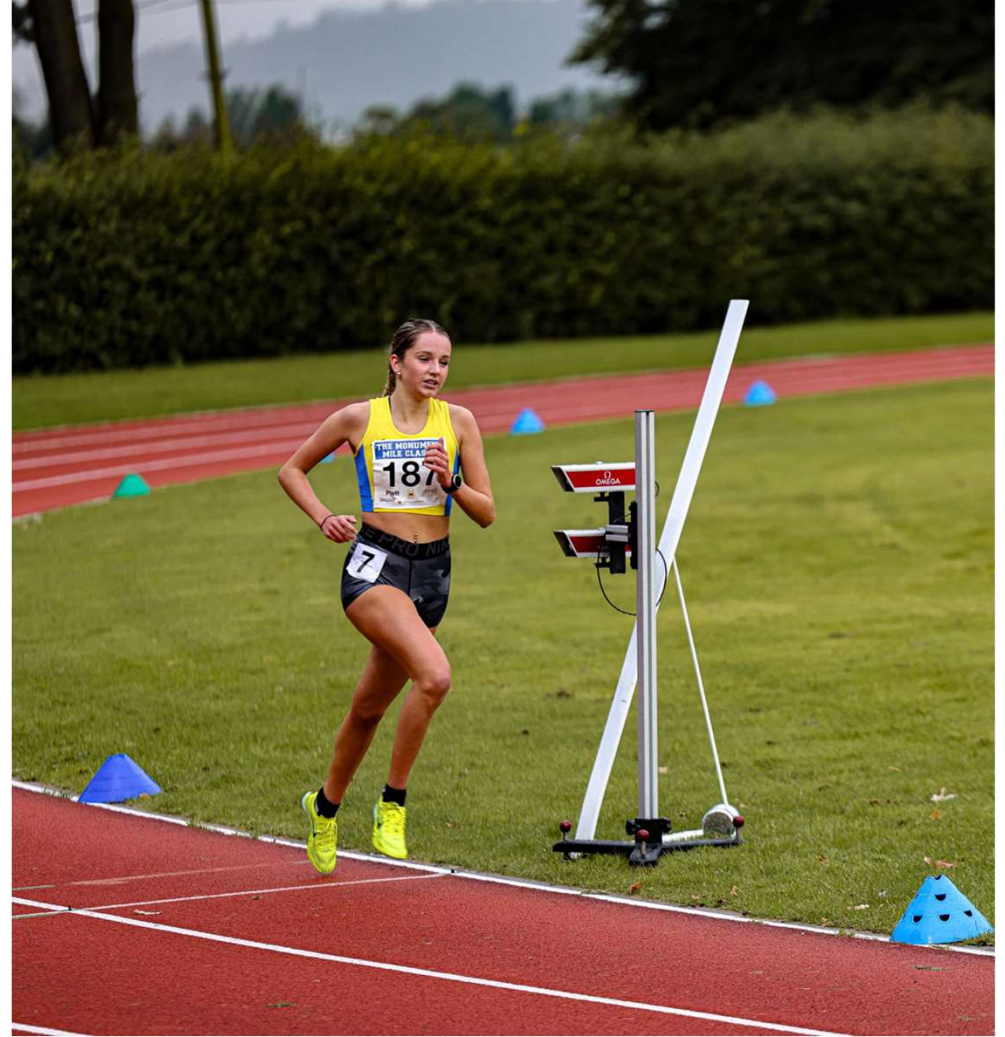

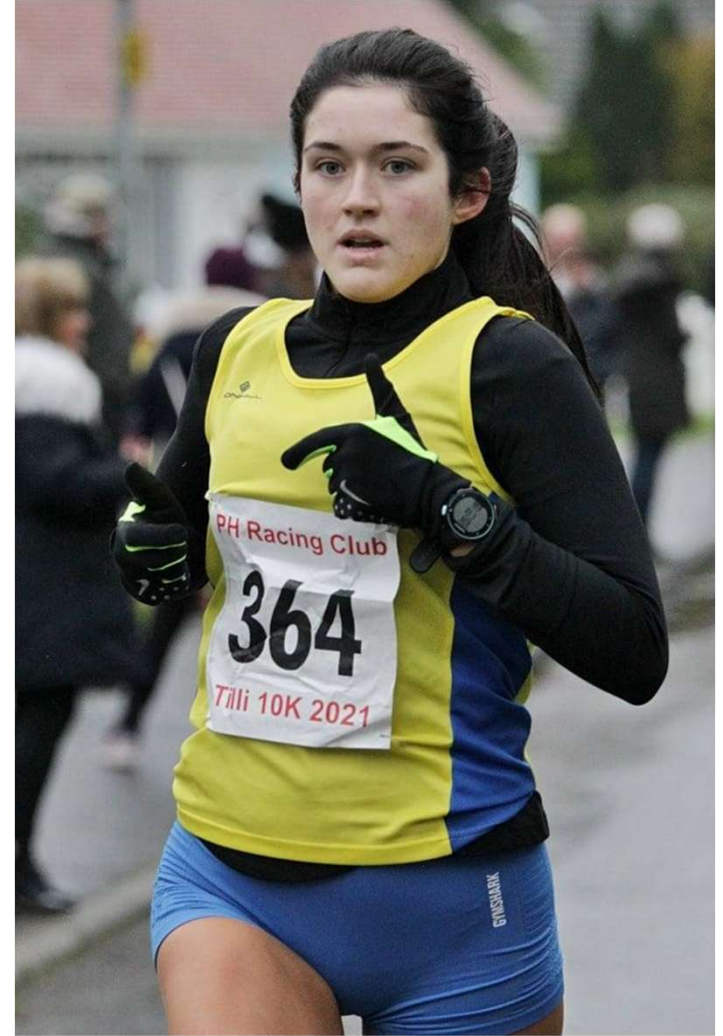

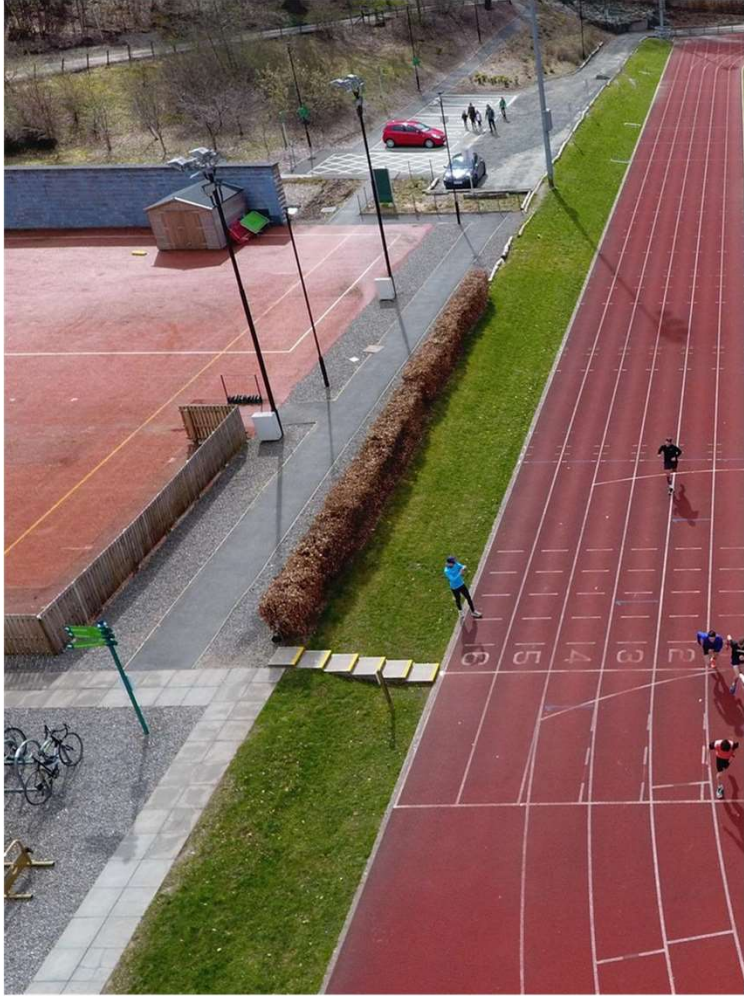

RMD/hr

16th December, 1974.

W. Adie Esq.,
Secretary,
Central Region A.C.,
121 Craigview,
Sauchie,
Alloa, FK10 3HF.

Dear Mr. Adie,

At a recent meeting of my General Committee it was unanimously approved that Central Region A.C. be admitted to membership of the Union. Accordingly your club has been allocated to the Eastern District and you are entitled to nominate a representative to attend meetings of the Eastern District Committee. I should be grateful if you would advise my Eastern District Secretary the name and address of your representative. Please note only male representatives may attend.

The colours of your club accepted are Yellow with Blue Trim with Bright Blue Shorts with White Trim.

Yours sincerely,

R. M. Dalgleish,
Honorary General Secretary,
Scottish Cross Country Union.

